

NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2009 CATHEDRAL SCHOOL

Dear Parents:

As we approach the season of Christmas, we hope you will continue to share the true meaning of Christmas with your children. You will give many gifts to your children in a lifetime, but the most important is their faith.

As December may bring thoughts of snow, please call the school number (610-435-8981) for dismissal updates. Local radio stations - WAEB, WFMZ, MIX 100.7 and TV (Channel 8) will broadcast closings or late starts as early as 6:00 AM. Usually, if Parkland School District closes, so do we. Cathedral School will be mentioned separately. We will also post closings or late starts on our website www.cathedral-church.org/school. In the event of early dismissal due to weather conditions, please make sure your children have someone to go with and someplace to go.

- Please remember to oversee your child's homework assignments. The parental homework involvement is a major component of the Cathedral learning process. Each night, parents should be drilling vocabulary, math facts and reviewing daily subject notes. This is a nightly learning experience that is essential for each day's success at Cathedral School.
- Congratulations to the 8th Grade on a fantastic play – "Romeo & Harriet." Great performance!
- Congratulations to the following students: High Honors 8th Gr. Hannah Brown, Daniel Holobeny, Killian Reppert, Jennifer Roberts, Anthony Sharp, Anthony Solt; Honors 8th Gr. – Michael Aboulhoda, Dalton Buskirk, Ryan Carty, Ryan Ciocco, Nicholas Roma, Patrick Sellers ; High Honors 7th Gr. Trevor Grigoruk, Rama Karadsheh, Abigail Lo, Meghan Osborne; Honors 7th Gr. Cavan Linsenman, Dominique Moyer, Jessica Squires, Kim Tran.

Be attentive to our school dress code, only navy sweaters and uniforms should be the proper length. Boys' hair styles should be neat.

As we enjoy the blessings of the Christmas season, let me express my thanks to you for the gift of your child here at Cathedral School.

A blessed holy Christmas Day!
