

OCTOBER

NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents:

By now everyone has fallen into a school routine and is ready for another year of learning and growing. Listed below are a few areas of interest:

- School board meetings are held bi-monthly and all families are welcome to attend. The meeting notes can be found on our school webpage under the Home School Partnership link.
- Children are marked late after an 8:05 a.m. arrival and require a late slip.
- The traditional school dress code is now in effect. Girls may only wear navy blue knee socks and navy blue Cathedral sweaters. Skirts should be at knee-length and make-up of any type is not permitted. Boys in grades 5-8 need to wear belts. Sneakers may only be worn on gym day. Altar servers are asked to wear dress shoes and bring sneakers to change on gym days.
- Kidstuff books are still available for sale at the price of $25.00 – use this book once or twice and the book has paid for itself! If you are not interested, please return to Mrs. Ebert in the school office.
- Our annual Halloween Parade will take place on Friday, October 30, at 2:00 p.m. Students in K-4 will process around the school. Our annex children will have a casual day with an orange and black theme. Since we teach non-violence, please make sure your child's costume reflects our philosophy as weapons of any type are unacceptable.
- Our uniform exchange is well-stocked in room 206 in the main building. It is open the first Thursday of the month from 6:00-7:30 p.m.
- Our children continue to grow in their spiritual life by attending Mass as a school community every Friday at 9:00 a.m. However, Sunday Mass attendance allows you to be the role model for your child (ren).

We wish you and your family a blessed and peaceful fall season.

Happy Fall,

Mrs. Fredericks
Principal
